J. B DUNN M. D.—Notice

——Advertise your Christmas goods in the NEWS.

——The streets last evening were beautiful with ladies.

——Meeting of Wm. G, Hill Lodge, No. 218, to-night to confer the first degree.

——A handsome lot on Davie street, near J. J. Nowell's, will be sold at public auction to-day.

——Physicians informs us that the reports that diphtheria is in existence in this city are totally unfounded.

——A meeting of the Academy of Medicine of the city will be held next Wednesday evening the 20th inst.

——The Committee of Arrangements for the inauguration will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at the Mayor's office.

——Yesterday was quite warm. Some of the whiskey around town melted, and last evening people sat on their front piazzas.

——Captions of all the acts and resolutions passed by the General Assembly since its session began appear on our third page this morning.

——The tank begun at the intersection of Davie and Dawson streets remains uncompleted. The plank fence around the hole in the ground is decidedly ornamental.

——We call attention this morning to the advertisement of Julius Lewis & Co., of a lot of best quality of wagons, buggies, &c., all new and at prices to suit the scarcity of money.

——Messrs. S. D. Harrison and E. L. Granger advertise Christmas goods. Persons in search of things for the month, would do well to call upon the former; those who want something for the head upon the latter.

——A portion of the material to be used in the construction of the platform for the inaugural ceremonies was hauled into the capitol grounds yesterday, and unloaded at the Southern front, between the building and the statue of Washington.

Give Quarter.

Give us a rest on "who's elected?" Ask something easy; for instance the status of the Eastern question, or the progress of the Cuban rebellion; who are the members of the new French Cabinet, or what has become of the case of the Tichborne claimant?

We haven't any idea under the sun who is elected. It may be Peter Cooper; he says if he has been defeated he should like to know by whom; its SittingBull for all we know and it may be Horace Greeley. We would gladly compromise on Sergeant Bates or Bessie Turner, and if Dom Pedro Charlie Ross wants it, either has our permission to step up and take hold. In short the arithmetical scribe feels that his mind is failing. he is no longer adequate to the capabilities; he flings up the sponge and absolutely refuses any longer to keep the score.

Summon Rescinded.

Judge Fowle has received a telegram, countermanding the telegram which he had received Monday evening, summoning him to Washington to testify before the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate. He is not the kind of man they want, and it surprised us from the first, that his presence should ever have been asked. He will, however, go anyway.

Ordered Not to Come.

At a late hour Tuesday night Mr. Secretary Howerton received a telegram from the Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate instructing him that he might disregard the telegram of the night previous summoning him to Washington until he receives further notification.

The Y. M. C. A.

A full and very important meeting of this association was held Tuesday evening at the large and comfortable office of Dr. C. J. Nall, who kindly furnishes its use free of all cost to the association. Reports were received from the various committees, and it is painfully evident that an immense amount of suffering and destitution now exist in this city, calling for the most generous and prompt action of relief. The association resolved to at once avail itself of the generous offer of Capt. A. B. Andrews, Superintendent of the North Carolina Railroad, to have its wood free and procure a supply at once. To meet these immediate wants a committee consisting of A. M. McPheeters, John Armstrong, D. W. Bain and W. C. Stronach was appointed to call on the citizens of Raleigh and receive the contributions which they have so cheerfully and generously given heretofore. A more urgent appeal has never been presented to our citizens for their liberality.

Under the following section of the By-Laws of the Association, to-wit: The committee for the relief of the poor shall consist of twelve members who shall be called Supervisors, each one of whom shall have control of such a portion or district of the city as may be set apart by the association, and each Supervisor may select at his option an assistant, with the sanction of the Executive Committee, and shall make a full report in writing at each regular meeting of the association of all work performed during the past month, the association appointed the following Supervisors on Distribution.

1st District—John Armstrong. 2nd—W. C. Stronach. 3rd—L. L Riddle. 4th—J. P. Gulley. 5th—A. McPheeters. 6th—Dr. C J. Nall. 7th R. W. Best. 8th -W. S. Primrose. 9th—W. J. Young, 10th—Thos. C. Worth. 11th—C. R. Harding. 12th -J. M. Heck.

A map with the boundries of each district will soon be published and distributed to the citizens.

Aid For the Orphans.

Capt. R. H. Brooks, a freight conductor on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, has with a thoughtfulness and kindness of heart which cannot be too highly commended, taken it upon himself to secure a car to be filled as far as may be with gifts for the children in the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and to leave here with the regular freight train on Friday morning before Christmas. Maj. J. C. Winder cheerfully gave a car for the purpose indicated, and on Thursday next, the 21st inst., Capt. Brooks will attend at the warehouse of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 4 P. M. to receive such things as the good people of Raleigh may find in their hearts to give these poor and friendless little ones. Aything that can be made serviceable in any way will be thankfully received; let the people give clothing, dresses, stockings, hats, shoes, bacon, flour, lard, or indeed anything that can be eaten or worn. All these things are needed and can and will be applied to advantage. We trust the people will heed this call upon their benevolence.

Bound to be Filed To-Day.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet at the Court House today to accept the bond of John B. Neathery, Esq., as county treasurer. It will be remembered that Mr. S. D. Harrison was elected to this office, but failing to give the bond, the office was declared vacant and Mr. Neathery was elected to it. He has succeeded without great difficulty in making a good bond of $111,000, the amount required by law, and will proceed to file it with the commissioners to-day.

We are glad, since the position had to go to a Republican, that Mr. Neathery is the one. In his present position as Private Secretary to the Governor he has made many friends by the uniform courtesy and obliging disposition which he has manifested to all who have been thrown in contact with him, and will fill the office to which he has been chosen with ability, honesty and fidelity to the people's interests. We congratulate him very heartily.

Amusements Ahead.

The New Orleans Jubilee Singers are booked to appear at Tucker Hall in this city on the 19th and 20th insts., next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. This is a colored company under white management, and a company with the reputation of which we are unfamiliar.

The Boyd Star Combination, which was here during fair week, is also booked for Tucker Hall on the evenings of the 3d, 4th and 5th prox. This company during its last visit to this city gave considerable satisfaction in some of its pieces, and will no doubt draw well again.

Fire crackers, candy, oranges, lemons, nuts, raisins, cakes, currants, dried peaches and apples, cranberries, mince meat, prunes, &c., wholesale or retail, at Woollcott's Open Front Store, Wilmington street. *

Mayor's Court.

His Honor had quite an interesting day of it at his tribunal yesterday. The cases were quite numerous and some of them of rather more than ordinary interest.

Martha Simmons, colored, was arraigned for bull-dogging a pair of boots the property of Mr. J. M. Carver, but was released upon making restitution and paying the cost.

Thos. Lilly, the inevitable, was up again for the accustomed case of d and d., and was put in jail there to remain for the space of ten days.

Archie Carthome was up for cruelty to an animal and was fined $5 and cost. He came into the city Wednesday, and before starting home got pretty full, so full indeed that the spirits got away with his equilibrium and at the head of Fayetteville street he fell off his cart. This made him so mad that whipping out his knife he proceeded to inflict two severe stabs upon the old steer which was pulling him. The steer gave a jump knocked him down and pulled the cart over him, and he was lying helpless in the street when the police took charge of him and lodged him for the night.

Hinton Bass, John Hydes and Jim Brown, all colored, went out hunting Tuesday evening, and about five miles from the city shot and killed a hog belonging to Mr. Chas. Beavers, which they brought to the city and sold. They were traced up and indicted, and the Mayor sent them all to jail in default of $200 bail in each case.

Postponement of the Emancipation Celebration.

At an adjourned meeting of the colored people held in the Court House Tuesday evening to take action regarding the proposed celebration of emancipation day, which falls on the 1st of January prox., the following preamable and resolution, offered by O. Hunter, Jr., were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The inauguration of the Governor of North Carolina will, by law, occur on the 1st of January, and

WHEREAS, We as citizens desire to witness the inaugural ceremonies which carry with them the destinies of every North Carolinian, whether he be white or black, for the next four years thereafter, therefore,

Resolved, That we, the colored people of Raleigh and Wake county, do postpone our 14th anniversary celebration of the Proclamation of Emancipation, which occurs also on the 1st prox., until the 2nd prox., in consequence thereof.

We are pleased to observe the excellent spirit which pervades the above preamble and resolution, and commend the colored people present for its unanimous passage.

The meeting adjourned to re-assemble on Monday night next.

The Recess.

Yesterday the General Assembly took a recess until Saturday, December 30th. During the short term that has elapsed since its convening, November 20th, a good deal of business has been dispatched. The dominant party in the body have shown from the outset a determination to transact business expeditiously and thoroughly. Work has been their watchword. On Monday following the reassembling, the Legislature will work under the amended Constitution, and if the same spirit of industry which characterized the early days of the session is manifested then the stipulated sixty days will not be exhausted, and a large saving be thus made to the tax-payers of the State. We hope that the members will enjoy a "merry Christmas," and come back with a firm purpose of redeeming the pledges of reform and retrenchment made to the people during the last canvass.

The Officers of the Rescue Fire Company.

The list of officers of the Rescue Fire Company, elected Monday night and published in the NEWS of Tuesday, was so grossly inaccurate that we republish it this morning.

Grand Hop.

The young gentlemen of this city have determined on giving a dress hop on the evening of January 2nd, at Tucker Hall. Cards of invitation will be issued in a few days. Ladies from a distance would do well to pack up and bring with them their tarletons, silks, satins, furbelows, flounces, &c., for such things will be in demand. The affair promises to be a very brilliant one, and the elite of the State will be present. The management has been entrusted to gentlemen who have a large and successful experience in such things.

Messrs. W. C & A B Stronach have just received a large lot of dressed Turkeys, Ducks and Chickens which they will dispose of at a sacrifice to-day.

The Heavy Sheriff of the State.

Sheriff J. C. Jacocks, of Perquimans, was in the city yesterday and settled the taxes of his county, amounting to $4,007.04. He is the fattest, funniest and fiddlingest Sheriff in the State. "His eyes" and his stomach "stand out with fatness," and he is as happy as heart could wish. Sheriff Jacocks weighs 275 pounds, and last year when he came up here to settle his taxes he was put in the papers. The item went the rounds, and each paper added a few pounds to the old gentleman's weight, until finally it got to Detroit Mich., when the Detroit Free Press put him down as weighing 500, and still further scandalized the Sheriff by saying that when a prisoner became refractory he (the Sheriff) sat down on him. When the paper found its way here, Sheriff Jacocks saw it and wrote to the Free Press man that he didn't like to be slandered in any such weigh, and that if he didn't send him the paper for a year he would go out there and sit down on him. In a week or two the paper came to him and has been coming ever since. The Sheriff told this story yesterday in the treasurer's office, and shook the capitol as he laughed over it.

He is a great fiddler, and all over his county, he is so well known as possessor of this accomplishment, that whenever the young people want to have some fun they send for the Sheriff and dance while he fiddles. He makes it a point of religion, however, to stop exactly at 12 o'clock and let what come will he won't saw a bow after midnight.

A Case of Bigamy.

A couple of weeks ago a young man living in this county married of woman with whom he had but a brief acquaintance, and who seems to have been pretty much of a stranger in all these parts. About 10 days after the marriage somebody told him that she was a married woman and had a daughter six years old. Of course he was right smart troubled, but he said nothing until the next morning, when upon waking up he told her that he had dreamed the night before that she had a husband before she married him, and a daughter six years of age. She flushed very red and said nothing until about the next day, when she expressed a desire to visit some relatives in S——county. He gave her the money to go on, and came to Raleigh with her. As they got on the train, a man approached them and said to her: "How are you Mrs. J. ——?" "That is not my name sir," she said "But it is," said he, "didn't I live right next door to you?" And the heathen went on and told all he knew about her married life. Husband No. 2 hopped off the train in the depths of despair, and the wife of two miserable men went on her way, probably not to come back any more.

The sequel is the rich part of the story, but it won't bear telling.

Fire at Morehead City.

Passengers by the train report that a slight fire, but one which at the beginning threatened to be very serious in its ravages, occurred Monday night at Morehead City. At a late hour of the night, an out building on the premises of the Macon House, was discovered to be on fire. An engineer on the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, being on his engine saw the flames and ran the engine up and down the track, blowing the whistle and ringing the bell, until the town became alarmed and turned out and extinguished the fire, not, however, before it had burned all the out buildings on the place and put the hotel itself, in imminent peril. The fire is believed to have been started by some one with incendiary designs.

Mr. J. M Sublett, who is the proprietor of the Macon House, seems to have been marked by fire and flood for their own. He was one of the proprietors of the Spotswood Hotel in Richmond when that building was burned; he was proprietor of the Atlantic Hotel, at Beaufort, when the floods swept over that building last summer and almost washed it away, and now he has narrowly escaped a third calamity.

Meeting of the R. L. I.

A meeting of the Raleigh Light Infantry was held last evening at the Mayor's office. A full interchange of views was had upon the expediency of the proposition for the company to go to Charlotte and become a part of Governor Vance's escort to Raleigh, and it was decided that this had best not be done, for the reason that it is more important that the company shall be at home to receive the visiting military and show them to their quarters. While the members are very much inclined to go to Charlotte on the mission stated, their decision in the matter is no doubt wise for the reason set forth.

There will be a meeting of the members of the company at 3 o'clock to-morrow [illegible] afternoon, for the purpose [illegible] no5tf Wm.

Address

"Oh! My Prophetic Soul!"

Just listen at this! Some time before the recent election a prominent Republican of this city, while sitting in his office, made this discovery, and upon the strength of it all the hope which he had hitherto had of this State going Republican died within him. Hear:

S-a-m-u-e-l J. T-i-l-d-e-n—13 letters.

Vance's majority was 13,009.

Now doesn't that look significant sure enough? None of us are so little superstitious but that we would have been somewhat affected by it, either one way or another, according to our politics, if we had discovered it before the election.

The Inauguration.

The committee to solicit contributions to prepare for the inaugural ceremonies, were on the rounds, yesterday, and did well. It will require a good deal of money to get up such a demonstration as is desired and such a one as will conform with the expectations of the large crowd which will be present. There can be no two opinions as to the crowd which will be here. The railroads running into Raleigh and those connecting with these, have received such intimations as cause them to begin gathering their cars up already and putting every available piece of rolling stock in order. Truly it will be a great day for North Carolina and right worthily will the great event be celebrated.

None to Issue.

Some time ago His Excellency, the Governor, made a requisition upon the ordnance department at Washington for accoutrements for several military companies of the State, among others the Hornet's Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte, and the Wilmington Light Infantry. The accourtrements were received with the exception of the knapsacks, and the Governor having made another requisition for these, received a letter yesterday informing him that there are no knapsacks in the ordnance department to issue.

Personal.

The last of the members of the General Assembly got off yesterday, with the exception of Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, and Dr. Ransom, of Tyrrell.

State Treasurer Worth went home yesterday to spend the holidays, and ex-Treasurer Jenkins arrived in the the city by the afternoon train.

Col. Zeke. Jones, of Greensboro, has been in the city for a couple of days past. He reports that all Greensboro and Guilford are coming to the inauguration.

The Funding Act of 1874-'75.

We learn that over $500,000 of bonds were offered the public treasurer to be compromised under the funding act. No exchange was actually made because new bonds were not prepared.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1876-'77.

SENATE.

TWENTIETH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 13.

The Senate was called to order at 8:30 o'clock, Mr. President Robinson in the chair.

The reading of the journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

Moore, colored, of New Hanover, and Mebane, colored, of Bertie, were allowed to changed their votes to aye on the sinsd bill passed yesterday, they having voted no under a misapprehension.

The President appointed as a temporary Committee on Enrolled Bills, Senators Dortch and Robins.

Upon motion of Senator Mebane, of Rockingham, the Senate then took a recess for 10 minutes.

Upon its re-assembling Senator Robins, from the temporary committee on Enrolled Bills, reported a number of bills and resolutions as properly enrolled.

The hour of 10 having arrived, the Senate was declared adjourned until 12 M. on the 30th.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 9:30 A M. the House was called to order by Mr. Speaker Price.

Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Messrs. Parish, McBrayer and Harris were appointed a temporary committee on Enrolled Bills.

On motion of Mr. Parish Senate resolution in favor of the Enrolling and Engrossing Clerks, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Parish, the resolution remitting several fines upon Josiah Turner, as public printer, for delay in furnishing certain printed matter, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Senate bill for the general relief of sheriffs and tax collectors, was taken up.

Mr Cooper offered an amendment.

Mr. McCubbins objected and made the point of order that there was no quorum.

A call of the House was had and no quorum declared, and the bill and amendment went over.

Mr Parish, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, reported the correct enrollment of a number of bills, all of which were duly ratified.

The House then adjourned until Monday, Dec 30th, 1876.

The oldest friends are to-day the staunchest friends of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. They have proven its great worth in all cases of coughs, colds' hoarseness, tickling in the throat, irritation of the bronchial tubes and lungs etc.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co., have on hand a large supply of very nice Mountain Butter which they are selling at very low prices. Farmers would do well to call on them and examine their Guanos, they sell the cheapest and the best.

Dr. Wm Stewart, Marine Hospital, Port of Baltimore: "I take pleasure in recommending Holden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef as a most excellent tonic and invigorator of the system. I have tested it with universal success."

THE majority for Governor Vance is 13,025. The majority for the amendments is 13,605. Vance and Reform, in the estimation of the people, meant one and the same thing; and these are the idols they are now jcined to.

IT IS reported that Grant says that North Carolina would have gone for Hayes and Wheeler, but for fraud. The report may be very justly supplemented by the additional statement that Grant lied. That is the long and short of it.

WE published the Edmunds resolution in full some days ago. It was a resolution of instruction to the Committee on Privileges and Elections—now the most important in the United States Senate—consisting of Messrs. Morton, (chairman) Logan, Mitchell, Wadleigh, Cameron, of Wisconsin, McMillan, Saulsbury, MERRIMON and Cooper.

MR. EDMUNDS hopes, under his resolution, to reduce the representation of the Southern States in Congress by 15 or 20 votes. This he plainly intimated in his remarks in the Senate on the sixth of the present month. If he carries this bold and aggressive measure through successfully, the House of Representatives two years hence will be secured to the Republicans.

THE trickery of the Republican managers exceeds all bounds. The North Carolina election is to be investigated by the United States Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, at once. Senator Merrimon is the one North Carolinian on that committee. Immediately he is dispatched to South Carolina, as a member of the sub-committee to take testimony in that State. He should by all means be present at the examination of Howerton, Tourgee, Richardson and other witnesses from this State, even if it involved his resignation on the sub-committee.

THE conduct of Gov. Chamberlain gives new emphasis to the remarks made about him, on the floor of the South Carolina Legislature, a year ago, by the negro Judge, W. J. Whipper. Whipper made a speech, in which this high-toned passage occurred:

"When Moses is a saint in Heaven, Chamberlain will be howling in hell. D. H. Chamberlain is unfit for earth; to Heaven he could not ascend; and in hell itself the devil would spurn him out. Chamberlain is a black hearted traitor, and he has gone so far that he must take the consequences. He has resisted the will of the people, and the same spirit which rose in the time of Charles the First will rise now and behead him."

MR. HEWITT is very positive that Tilden will be inaugurated. In a recent conversation with a Republican, at Washington, he is reported as having said: "You Republicans may take either horn of the dilemma you choose. If you maintain that there is no authority for the House to go behind the face of the returns, then Tilden has 185 votes certified in accordance with the forms of law. If you insist upon investigating the Oregon case, then you concede us the right to do the same thing with the returns from South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana; and we shall throw out those States or count them for Governor Tilden. In either case the result will be the election of Tilden."

INVESTIGATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA ELECTIONS.

The steps just taken by the United States Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections takes the public by surprise. Although the proposed investigation might have been expected, inasmuch as the Republican managers are out on a tearing hunt for Democratic election frauds, still there was no note of warning that the fair and peaceful and honest election of our good old State was to be overhauled at Washington. No intimation whatever had been given of this investigation, by telegraph, by mail, or by common report from the Capital. The movement was kept profoundly secret until the summons to Secretary Howerton, Judge Fowle, Mr. Richardson and Mr. Tourgee reached this city.

It is not yet definitely known for what purpose this investigation has been instituted. Some Republicans, willing to slander the State to accomplish a partisan purpose, have since the day of election been busy circulating the report that North Carolina would have gone for Hayes and Wheeler but for fraud, and this statement, it is rumored, has very recently been reiterated by President Grant. Beyond this nothing has been said or done, so far as we know, to indicate that the Republicans included North Carolina in the category of those Southern States which they set down as having been carried by fraud for the Democrats. We look in vain through the proceedings of the United States Senate to find our State singled out as a fit subject for the inquisitorial eyes of the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The summons received by the Secretary of State does not show upon its face the object of this examination into our election affairs. The Secretary is called to Washington to appear before the United States Senate Committee on Privileges and Eelections to testify what he may know relative to "the subject matters under considerati n by said committee," and he is required to carry with him a certified copy of the vote of North Carolina for electors for President at the recent election, and also copies of all laws of this State in relation to the manner of canvassing and returning the electoral vote of the State.

It cannot be that the Radical managers have the faintest hope of showing frauds sufficient to reverse the result in this State. There has been no specific allegations of fraud; there is no evidence of fraud; there was no fraud by the Democrats. Even the Republicans themselves admit this. Secretary Howerton is reported as saying that he had never known a fairer election in this State than the last, and Governor Brogden canvassed the vote, proclaimed the result and issued the certificates without regarding the only protest filed—that of Col. Keogh. There were no irregularities in the casting of the electoral vote. Nothing in fact has appeared which can give the Radicals the slenderest basis on which to rest allegations of fraud or of violations of law.

We are disposed to conclude that there is another purpose in view—one more deeply partizan and more far-reaching in its ultimate effects. It will be remembered that Mr. Edmunds, on the 6th instant, succeeded in pressing through the Senate a resolution intended to deprive the South of a portion of its representation in Congress on the ground that several of the States have violated, in spirit and in letter, the second section of the fourteenth article of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States, wherein it is provided:

"When the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or otherwise, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State."

Senator Edmunds' resolution was ostensibly directed only against the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. But the Democrats in the Senate, led by Mr. Thurman and Mr. Bayard, raised objection to the resolution partly on the ground that it is so worded that no one can tell what States are embraced in the inquiry. Mr. Thurman stated that the committee might go all over the United States to find whether in any State in this Union there has been a denial of the right of suffrage.

So that it may be that North Carolina is to be investigated under the Edmunds resolution, and for the purposes above indicated. We have nothing to fear in this regard. Our elections can stand the closest scrutiny. There has been neither fraud nor intimidation, nor any other abridgement of the right to vote, in this State, in the elections in the years 1875 or 1876—the only elections embraced in the inquiry. We have no cause to shun this needless partisan inquisition. Rather should we court the investigation, that even the shadow of suspicion may not rest upon the good name and fair fame of the Democratic party of North Carolina.

SITTING BULL MORTON is chairman of the Senate Committee which proposes to investigate the election in this State.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The General Assembly yesterday took a recess until the 30th of December, after a session of twenty days, exclusive of Sundays and Thanksgiving Day. This part of the session was abridged with the view of giving to the latter part of the session all the time allowable under the amended constitution.

A great deal of practical and useful legislation was accomplished as is exhibited in part by the captions of the laws which we publish elsewhere to-day. It will be seen that few measures of general public importance were put through. The main work has been left over for the remainder of the session. Only the initiative steps have been taken in the important legislation which must engage the attention of the General Assembly after the recess.

A committee was appointed to consider during the recess the subject of County Governments, and report in January; bills looking to the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad were introduced; the operation of the Act of 1874 '75 providing for the consolidation of the Public Debt was looked into; and the various committees were set to work on other leading subjects yet to be passed upon.

During the recess the members will have an opportunity of consulting their constituents fully on the great questions already touched upon in the Legislature; and on re-assembling, they will be prepared to act expeditiously and wisely in consummating the reforms demanded.

WE know of no Republican who should be retained in office under the Democratic administration of the affairs of this State. The policy of our party should be to make a clear sweep of Radical office holders, and supply their places with men who were true to North Carolina in her dark hours, as well as in the brighter days. Of course some very clever Republicans must lose their places. But what of that? To make an omelet, some eggs must be broken; to cut a line through a forest, some trees must be hewn down.

PERSONAL.

Only two Smiths in the next Congress.

General Ruger is a howling Republican.

Last Friday a little son of Dr. Michaud, of Richmond, Va. was poisoned by sucking green paper.

King John of Abyssinia, has appointed Major Barlow, an English officer to be commander-in-chief of all his forces.

Secretary Cameron is reported engaged to a very beautiful young lady of Washington, who only enters the society of the Capital this season.

Mrs. Lander the actress, has presented the Corcoran Gallery a half-length picture of the Empress Catherine the Second of Russia, which was painted from life.

Ensign Smith and a boat's crew of 14 men, belonging to the flagship Hartford, came near freezing to death in Hampton Roads the other day, while searching for a launch adrift.

A reigning belle in Richmond Va. during the war between the States and now a resident in New York, is at the head of a movement for the collection of money for the Lee monument of southern people now denizens of that city.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Senators Conkling and Blaine meet as strangers. They have not spoken to each other for over ten years.

A plot is on foot among the Republicans of the Senate to resist the admission of Senator-elect Lamar of Mississippi.

Mr. Cronin, the Democratic elector in Oregon, is a brother of Mr. Timothy C. Cronin, of Brooklyn, one of the Republican electors for New York.

In reply to congratulatsons upon arriving in Albany, Governor Tilden said that he had never felt better in his life, and he believed that running for the Presidency rather improved his health.

It may be remembered that two days after the election Kellogg, de facto Governor of Louisiana, telegraphed to Logan "If Governor Tilden relies on the vote of Louisiana he will never be President."

The Southern Home contends that the Mecklenburg loyalists are the most enterprising in the State. This remark is made in commenting upon the dexterity with which one of them "bulldozed" a sack of flour in front of a Charlotte store in broad daylight.

The board, says a New Orleans correspondent, would not have ventured to go so far if it had not been for the assurances given to them by the northern Republican visitors that their action whatever it might be, would be sustained by the government.

The appointment of Mr. John Kelly to the comptrollership of New York is warmly indorsed by the press of that city, the Times excepted. The general expression is that Mr. Kelly has the firmness, honesty and business capacity necessary to make a good comptroller.

Wash. Special to Baltimore un: The President, in conversation with a prominent Republican politician, remarked that he was apprehensive that Tilden could not be kept out of the Presidency, but said that he intended to use all the authority and all the means at his command to compel the Democrats to prove that they had a lawful right to the office.

New York Sun: Hayes is not his own man; he is the man of the Republican conspiracy. Of course he was not consulted in its organization, and has not taken any direct part in the management of its different stages; but he is accessory to it after the fact, and is bound to take its fruits and to try to run the government. And this he must do in the interest of the scoundrels who against the will of the people [illegible] him President.

Republican Threats.

[Washington Union.]

It is all Radical bluster. They have not the least idea of trying it on. We have the law and the Constitution. Behind these, and in the firm stern sense of the people to defend them, we are impregnably intrenched. Only by armed force and revolutionary violence can we be assailed. Tilden has the majority of votes. He must be found and declared elected, if all the votes are counted in the two Houses. If either house rejects any, then no candidate will be found elected by undisputed votes. Then the right of election will devolve on the House of Representatives. The way of the law is clear. Some few Radicals, whose heads are turned, rage and threaten that their Senate will proclaim for Hayes, and that Grant and his army will seat him. Luckily, for these foolish, mad people, such wicked talk falls short of actual treason. They will have the sense to keep clear of overt acts. The talk will relieve their minds, and give no trouble to sensible people. This Government is not so weak as to fall down before blustering Radicalism. It is as Mr. Jefferson declared it to be, "the strongest Government on earth; the only Government in which every man, at the call of the law, will rush to the standard of the law, and meet invasions of the public order as his own personal concern." The representatives of the people know that, in defense of the law and of the Constitution intrusted to them, they will be backed by the whole power of the people. Only the most open treachery could propose to them the desertion of their duty and the surrender of their trust. Mere cowardice would be incapable of it. Such excess of political timidity is not in nature. But neither their fidelity nor their courage will be put to any test. Grant has no idea of trying the virtue and patriotism of the American people; and he has no army that would follow him into any mad treason against the country and the lawful Government.

"Facts are Stubborn Things."

Thousands of human beings are yearly borne on the swift current of disease down to the grave just because they do not possess a sufficient knowledge of themselves. A man meets his neighbor, and the first salutation is, "How are you?" or "How is your health?" The reply frequently is, "Oh, I am well, with the exception of a cold." Most persons lightly regard a cold. Reader, do you know that a cold is one of the most dangerous of maladies? A cold not only clogs up the pores of the entire system, and retards circulation, but it is productive of Catarrh, which is quite apt to lead to Consumption. "Oh," you say, "It is nothing but a cold in my head." True; but that cold is really a mild form of Catarrh, and if not arrested in its course will become chronic. Catarrh is one of the most disagreeable, offensive affections in the catalogue of diseases. The passage to the nose is obstructed the sense of smell impaired, and there is a disagreeable sensation of pressure in the head. In the more advanced stages, there is a discharge having an offensive odor. If the disease be allowed to continue in its course, thick, hard incrustations will form in the head, the bones of which sometimes become softened and break away in pieces. Why will persons continue to suffer from such an annoying, disgusting disease, when they can just as well be cured of it? Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst forms of Catarrh; in fact, it is the only sure and safe remedy which has yet been offered to the public. Many harsh, irritating preparations may, for a time, relieve the urgency of the symptoms but they do not cure the disease. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is soothing and healing in its effects, and when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche according to direcions, does not fail to effect a cure. Sold by all Druggists.

DESTRUCTION BY ICE.

The Moving Ice at St. Louis--Steamers Carried Down the Stream and Wrecked--Large Loss of Property.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 13.—Early yesterday morning, a rush of ice from points north of here forced itself upon the ice in the harbor, opposite the city, and carried it down the stream with great rapidity, taking with it several steamers lying at the bank in the southern part of the city. The "Fannie Keener" sunk opposite the arsenal, and is probably a wreck. The "South Belle" and "Jennie Baldwin," also sunk. The loss is not heavy, they being small boats.—Among others carried down, are the "Centennial." "Alex," "Mitchell," "Minnesota," "Bayard" and "Davenport."

Later reports show that all the boats of the Keokuk Northern Line, were in winter quarters and were supposed to be secure from damage, but when the ice started, these steamers were forced from their moorings and carried down the stream. The "War Eagle" and Golden Eagle," two of the largest and most valuable boats, were forced on shore in such manner as to block the passage, and other boats crowded in and caused a complete jam. The ice moved several times during the afternoon and night, and forced the boats upon one another, doing great damage. The "Centennial" had almost all her upper works torn away. The "Mitchell" was crushed nearly to pieces.—The "Davenport" sunk. The "Bayard" is almost completely destroyed. "Rock Island," "War Eagle," "Golden Eagle" and "Andy Johnston" are badly damaged. The "Robboy" and "Northwestern," which were uninjured, raised steam and the "Red Wing" and the "Minneapolis," with lumber barques, were pulled out and towed to the bar, about ¼ of a mile below the arsenal, where they were considered safe. At midnight it was thought that the hulls of the "Centennial" and those of the "Andy Johnson" would be saved.—The "Golden Eagle" and "War Eagle" may be rescued in a broken condition.

The loss, roughly estimated, is $200,000. No insurance on the boats of the Keokuk Northern Line.

WASHINGTON.

Congressional Proceedings--The Jetties--Mexican Claims.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—In the Senate Anthony, from the Committee on Printing, reported a joint resolution to print 10,000 extra copies of the message of the President and accompanying documents in regard to the late election in Louisiana.

Mr. Thurman objected to its present consideration, and it went over until to-morrow. The Senate then resumed the consideration of the resolution of Mr. Mitchell, providing for an inquiry into the appointment of Oregon electors.

The session of the House was occupied with Bland's Silver Bill.

It is thought at the War Department that additional legislation is necessary to allow Eads his first instalment on the jetties appropriation. The committee promises to take early action to provide for the liquidation of the awards of the Mexican Claims Commission.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Dual Legislature--A Count by the Democratic House--The U. S. Senatorship--Corbin Declared Elected by the Bogus Body.

COLUMBIA, Dec 13.—The Democratic House to-day passed a resolution to count the votes for Governor and Lt. Governor to-morrow at 2 P. M. The resolution was communicated to the Senate. There was another ballot for United States Senator by the Democrats to-day, which resulted in no choice.

The Senate and Republican House in joint session declared the election of D. T. Corbin as United States Senator.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Silver Bill--Railroad Scheme--Wholesale Printing of Lying Reports---Defeat of the Edmunds' Amendment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—HOUSE—The House after a long debate passed by a vote of 167 to 56, a substitute for the bill to utilize the product of gold and silver mines, commonly known as the silver bill. It contains one short provision for the coinage of silver dollars of certain weight, which are to be a legal tender for all debts, public and private, unless where specially provided that payment shall be made in gold.

The House then took up the bill to make the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad, in Nebraska, a branch of the Union Pacific Railroad. There was strong opposition to the bill manifested on both sides of the House.

On motion of Grover, of Missouri, it was recommitted.

This action is regarded as tantamount to a defeat.

SENATE.—The committee on printing reported favorably on the motion to print five thousand copies of the statement of the manner of counting the electoral vote from 1789 to 1873, inclusive. Laid over. The committee also reported in favor of printing 1,850 copies of the President's Louisiana outrage message. Laid over.

Mitchell's resolution regarding Oregon was discussed with a view to strike from the preamble the words reflecting on Governor Grover.—There was no action.

The Edmunds amendment was resumed.

Bogy made an elaborate argument against it. The amendment was rejected by a vote of 14 to 31. This is the vote of the affirmative: Yeas, Allison, Anthony, Blaine, Burnside, Conkling Edmunds, Ferry, Frelinghuysen, Hamlin, Hitchcock, Morrill, West and Wright.

Executive session.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

A New Jersey Elector Investigated--Telegrams Called For.

ROOMS NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE,
WASHINGTON, Dec 13, 1876.

To the People of the United States:

"The National Democratic Committee announce as the result of the Presidential election, held on the 7th of November, the election of Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, as President, and Thomas A Hendricks, of Indiana, as Vice-President of the United States. We congratulate you on this victory for Reform. It now only remains for the two Houses of Congress, in the performance of their duty, on the second Wednesday in February next to give effect to the will of the people, thus expressed in the constitutional mode by a majority of the electoral votes, and confirmed by a majority of all the States as well as by an overwhelming majority of all the people of the United States.

By order of the Executive Committee.

ABRAM S. HEWITT, Ch'mn.
FRED. A. PRINCE, Sec'y.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections are taking testimony concerning Benjamin Williamson, a New Jersey Democratic Elector, who was United States Commissioner. Gov. Bedbee and Secretary of State Kelso, will be summoned.

A. S. Brown, Superintendent of the Telegraph office at New York, and Capt. L. Whitney, manager of the Western Union office here, are summoned before the House Committee sitting at New Orleans, to produce certain telegrams, sent by Secretary Chandler, pending the canvass of the votes.

The Senate Investigating Committee have not yet called for telegrams.

Twenty-four and a half millions of silver have been exchanged for fractional and greenback currency.

OF COURSE.

Hayes Thinks that He has Been Lawfully and Fairly Elected--He Expects to be Inaugurated.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—A Herald special from Cincinnati says that Governor Hayes, in a conversation with one of the local Republican leaders here said: "I have examined the situation carefully and thoroughly, besides have solicited and obtained the opinions of the best constitutional lawyers of the country, and I am now satisfied that I have been honestly elected President of the United States and am entitled to the office, and I fully expect to be inaugurated as such." The Governor is particularly careful to avoid expressing very decided opinions in the presence of correspondents, but this remark was made to a gentleman who vouches for its truth.

Fast Mail--The Convention.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—It is announced that arrangements are being made for the resumption of the fast mail over the Pennsylvania Railroad. The mail will reach Washington from New York at 1 o'clock and 2 minutes, and connect at Cincinnati with a fast train through to Nashville, Mobile, New Orleans and the whole South. A railway post-office car will soon be attached to the 8:30 A. M. train, which will run through to St. Louis. This train will connect at Philadelphia with trains through to Richmond, Va., giving a dispatch to all mail matter accumulating after 4:30 and 5 A. M., and prior to its departure. A New York and Washington postal car will make through connections with the Southern seaboard States and will be despatched at 6 P. M.

Not Voided.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—It is claimed that by section 3,836, Revised Statutes, neither Pollace nor Watts has legally voided his tenure as postmaster.

INQUIRY BEGUN IN NEW ORLEANS.

The Congress Committee to Examine the Infamous Returning Board To-Day.

[N. Y. Sun.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 11.

A majority of the members of the House Committee on Louisiana reached here on Sunday. They had no sooner arrived than they were informed that the members of the Returning Board were preparing to quit the city immediately. Subpœnas were instantly served on the members of the board. Many Republican supervisors and election officials had disappeared. They are to be hunted up and brought before the committee.

Mr. Morrison arrived to-day. The committee then fixed temporary headquarters in the St. Charles Hotel, and had an informal session. In the meantime immense throngs of men gathered in and around the hotel, anxious to glean anything concerning the views and contemplated action of the Congressmen. These multitudes remained about the building all day, but, so far, have been unable to ascertain what transpired at that informal session.

The members immediately arranged plans for action. Their programme is to bring before them to-morrow the Returning Board officers. These will then be compelled to give information, which they have so far withheld, as to what polls, precincts, and parishes they threw out, and for what cause. When the Board has explained its actions sub-committees, of which four were appointed to-day, will immediately visit the rejected precincts or parishes, and take testimony. In this way they will track every fraud Wells & Co. have committed and completely unmask the scoundrels. The Republicans are extremely silent and terrible anxious. Subpœnas have been sent to all supervisors of registration, and those that can be found will be brought up to-morrow. The majority of the members of the committee are thoroughly posted on their case, and are astonished at the gross compound of fraud and blunder that the Republican officials have made of it. In session to-day they were very sanguine. They considered it as settled that they can satisfy the whole country as to the nature of the great crime committed by the Louisiana branch of the great conspiracy.

After to-day's session was over the Republicans took charge of the minority members and led them to the Custom House to initiate them into the mysteries of intimidation.

Invigorate, and Be Healthy.

The source of nine-tenths of the bodily ills of mankind is a deficiency of vital power No portion of the physical machinery can efficiently perform its allotted duty if there is insufficient motive force in the system. Invigorate, therefore, in order to regain health For the restoration of lost vitality, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are the best tonic that can be selected, since they not only impart fresh vigor to the debilitated system, but overcome disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which interfere with complete assimilation of the food and thus perpetuate weakness. The Bitters likewise cure and prevent malarious fevers, remedy debilitating urinary troubles, and eliminate from the blood through the kidneys the impurities which originate gout, rheumatism and dropsy. Appetite, digestion, sleep—in short every essential condition of health, are promoted by their use.
